Evening Brief

Date: Thursday August 2, 2018

Weather Summary

*** High Risk for Gusty Winds/Low RH for Wrn/Nrn NV and Idaho on Friday and continuing over western NV and southwest Utah on Saturday and Sunday***

Mixed wet/dry thunderstorms will continue over the southern half of NV/UT and the AZ Strip through Fri/Sat. Drier thunderstorms may move across Idaho on Saturday night/Sunday, however confidence is low at this time.

A warming and drying pattern will set in by the first of next week as the high pressure becomes centered over the Great Basin.

Fuels and Fire Behavior advisory has been issued for Northern Great Basin

Fuels/Fire Potential

A Fuel/Fire Behavior advisory has been issued for North/West Nevada into Idaho and Northwest Utah. This advisory can be found here:

<https://gacc.nifc.gov/gbcc/fuels.php>

ERC's are mainly in the 80th - 97th percentile across Northern parts of NV, northern 2/3 of UT and ID, where many areas are approaching record highs for the time of year. Wyoming ERC's are also steadily rising above the 70th - 80th percentiles. Sagebrush Live Fuel Moisture levels across most areas are near early August normal, and grasses are cured in just about all areas, except the highest elevations above 6500 ft. in Idaho and Western Wyoming.

ERC's are still near or below the 50th percentile across the southern third of Nevada, Utah, into the AZ Strip, but even there, drier pockets are beginning to emerge, along with an occasional lightning holdover.
